Who would not be Beautiful!
Miss …, what has made you so beautiful of late? Your skin has, as if by magic, become passing fair; its sallow look and the rough appearance have disappeared, and in its stead I see a lily white, velvety skin; yet, by close examination I cannot detect the use of any cosmetic. Now tell me, pray, what secret art you have discovered which has so enhanced your beauty, and making you look at least ten years younger? My friend, I use PARIS PEARL, a cosmetic which will not only confer a present, but a lasting benefit to the complexion. For sale at B. F. BRADBURY'S and … Boston Button Store. Ship Owners.
AMERICAN LLOYDS OFFICE, Burling Slip, New York, Jan. 31, 1871.
The Register for 1871 is now ready. The January Supplements will contain the introduction to the history of the "Register." In order to supply the demand for the Exposition, an extra edition will be printed and furnished gratuitously to all parties in possession of a book called the "Record," or a book called the "American Lloyds Universal."
HARTSHORN & KING.

The American Lloyds Register, being the acknowledged standard of American surveys of shipping, approved by underwriters generally, and adopted by the Peruvian government as a standard for the selection of ships to carry Guano, also by the California Board of Underwriters and the West India Lloyds at Havana, &c., &c., it is important to owners to have their vessels surveyed and classed in the "Register." Having competent surveyors throughout the State of Maine, I am prepared to order or make surveys promptly of those apply, and to grant certificates under the "Standard Rules" issued by the Board. Also parties can be supplied with copies of the American Lloyds Register, for 1871, by sending their orders to me at the National Insurance Company, Bangor.

MANHOOD
IN THE
YOUNG AND RISING GENERATION.

The vegetative powers of life are strong, but in a few years how often the pallid hue, the lack-lustre eye and emaciated form, and the impossibility of application to mental effort, show their baneful influence. It soon becomes evident to the observer that some depressing influence is checking the development of the body. Consumption is talked of, and perhaps the youth is removed from school and sent into the country. This is one of the worst movements. Removed from ordinary diversions of the ever-changing scenes of the city, the powers of the body, too much enfeebled to give zest to healthful and rural exercise, thoughts are turned inwardly upon themselves.

If the patient be a female the approach of the menses is looked for with anxiety as the first symptom in which nature is to show her saving power in diffusing the circulation and visiting the cheek with the bloom of health. Alas! increase of appetite has grown by what it fed on. The energies of the system are prostrated, and the whole economy is deranged. The beautiful and wonderful period in which body and mind undergo so fascinating a change from child to woman, is looked for in vain. The parent's heart bleeds in anxiety, and fancies the grave but waiting for its victim.

HELMBOLD'S
EXTRACT BUCHU
For Weakness Arising from Excesses or Early Indiscretion, attended with the following symptoms: Indisposition to Exertion, Loss of Power, Loss of Memory, Difficulty of Breathing, General Weakness, Horror of Disease, Weak Nerves, Trembling, Dreadful Horror of Death, Night Sweats, Cold Feet, Wakefulness, Dimness of Vision, Languor, Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System, often Enormous Appetite with Dyspeptic Symptoms. Hot Hands, Flushing of the Body, Dryness of the Skin, Pallid Countenance and Eruptions on the Face, Pain in the Back, Heaviness of the Eyelids, Frequently Black Spots Flying before the Eyes, with Temporary Suffusion and Loss of Sight, Want of Attention, Great Mobility, Restlessness, with Horror of Society. Nothing is more desirable to such patients than Solitude, and nothing they more dread, for fear of themselves; no repose of manner, no earnestness, no speculation, but a hurried transition from one question to another.

THESE SYMPTOMS, IF ALLOWED TO GO ON—WHICH THIS MEDICINE INVARIABLY REMOVES—SOON FOLLOW LOSS OF POWER FATUITY AND EPILEPTIC FITS, IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE.

During the Superintendence of Dr. Wilson at the Bloomingdale Asylum, this same result occurred to two patients. Reason had for a time left them, and both died of epilepsy. They were of both sexes and about twenty years of age.

Who can say that these excesses are not frequently followed by those direful diseases, Insanity and Consumption? The records of the Insane Asylums and the melancholy deaths by Consumption, bear ample witness to the truth of these assertions. In Lunatic Asylums the most melancholy exhibition appears. The countenance is actually sodden and quite destitute; neither mirth nor grief ever visits it. Should a sound of the voice occur it is rarely articulate.

"With woful measures wan despair
Low sullen sounds their grief beguiled."

While we regret the existence of the above diseases and symptoms, we are prepared to offer an invaluable gift of chemistry for the removal of the consequences.

Sold by Druggists and Dealers everywhere. Price $1.25 per bottle, or six bottles for $6.50. Delivered to any address. Describe symptoms in all communications.

Horace Greeley was given a brilliant reception Saturday evening at the residence of A. J. Johnson, esq., in New York. A large number of invitations had been issued, each card containing a fine steel engraving of Mr. Greeley, and a fac simile of his characteristic autograph. Nearly all who were invited responded in person, and the spacious and exquisitely decorated parlors of Mr. Johnson were soon densely packed with one of the most remarkable assemblages ever seen in New York.

An ignorant critic finds fault with Joaquin Miller's poem: "Kit Carson's Ride," because the hero dashes away "on bareback horse" and subsequently "rises in his stirrups." This kind of criticism is the paltry work of an uninformed mind. Those who are familiar with Mr. Carson's habits know that he never carried his stirrups upon his horse. He wore them hanging by a strap over his shoulders, and when he wanted to rise he placed his feet in them, and stood up, his whole weight falling upon himself, leaving the horse untouched beneath. Any person with ordinary intelligence will see by the above explanation that Kit's idea was to relieve his horse at times from his heavy burden.

The Lewiston Journal's correspondent gives the following account of the "gentleman from Whitefield" rising to a "question of privilege:"—

Mr. Carleton said he noticed in the Portland Press of yesterday, a most illiterate misspelling of the name of Balaam. They had got the double a on the wrong side of the "l." He said: I call the attention of the House to the fact that they may see the literary talent of the Portland Press. Some one asked him which one of the editors of the Press he was accusing of illiteracy. Carleton responded:—"That nervous Gipson."

A hearing concerning the P. & O. Road was had before both branches of Portland City Government Saturday night, the subject being the proposed loan of the city's credit to the road. Remarks were made pro and con, after which Mayor Kingsbury gave notice that no action would be taken then in the matter, and also that Monday evening the regular meeting of the board of Aldermen would take place and a hearing would be given to the Portland and Rochester Road who desire a loan of $450,000 from Portland to build their western extension.

The Camden Herald says that a Railroad meeting was held at Warren on the 27th ult. to awaken the people to the importance of subscribing for and building the George Railroad, agreeably to its charter, from some point on the Knox & Lincoln, in the town of Warren, through Warren, Union, Appleton and Searsmont, to Belfast, by the most feasible route. Several speeches were made on the subject, and it was voted to adjourn to meet at the town house in Union, Feb. 10th, at about one o'clock in the afternoon.

The Army and Navy Journal, good authority, shows that it would require all the much vaunted navy of Spain in the event of a war with this country, to defend the coast of Cuba, rendering it impossible for that power to essay a coup de main upon our coast. Spanish iron-clads are shown to be far from invulnerable.

It is understood at Washington that the written instructions given by the State Department to the counsel for the United States before the Geneva arbitrators, limit their duties and obligations to matters purely professional in a technical sense; that all statements of counsel must be approved at Washington before announcement, thus keeping the political and legal relations of all the issues in the hands of the Secretary of State and the Attorney General.

The New York Herald closes a long article reviewing possible candidates for the Presidency in these words:—

"We take Grant against the field. He has done well and has been in every respect a good and faithful servant. The Republican politicians cannot defeat his nomination by any 'one term' intrigue, and the American people are too generous to permit him to be sacrificed to the ambition and animosity of rebels, Democrats and disappointed Republican office-seekers."

Gen. Lew Campbell may be unseated after all, although Gen. Schenck has never contested the election. Testimony was taken, however, last year, before an U. S. Commissioner, and he has brought evidence to Washington that the ballot boxes at Hamilton were stuffed by Peter Schwab, to give Campbell a majority. The testimony shows that without counting the votes of the inmates of the Military Asylum, Gen. Schenck was legally elected, receiving at least eighty-two, and perhaps a hundred and two majority.

National Union Republican Convention.

The undersigned, constituting the National Committee designated by the Convention held at Chicago on the 20th of May, 1868, hereby call a Convention of the Union Republican party at the city of Philadelphia, on Wednesday, the 5th day of June next, at 12 o'clock noon, for the purpose of nominating candidates for the offices of President and Vice President of the United States.

Each State is authorized to be represented in the Convention by delegates equal to twice the number of Senators and Representatives to which it will be entitled in the next National Congress and each organized Territory is authorized to send two delegates.

In calling this Convention, the Committee remind the country that the promise of the Union Republican Convention of 1868 have been fulfilled. The States lately in rebellion have been restored to their former relations to the Government. The laws of the country have been faithfully executed, public faith has been preserved, and the national credit firmly established. Governmental economy has been illustrated by the reduction, at the same time, of the public debt and of taxation, and the funding of the national debt at a lower rate of interest has been successfully inaugurated. The rights of naturalized citizens have been protected by treaties, and immigration encouraged by liberal provisions. The defenders of the Union have been gratefully remembered, and the rights and interests of labor recognized. Laws have been enacted, and are being enforced, for the protection of persons and property in all sections. Equal suffrage has been engrafted on the National Constitution, the privileges and immunities of American citizenship have become a part of the organic law, and a liberal policy has been adopted toward all who engaged in the rebellion.— Complications in foreign relations have been adjusted in the interest of peace throughout the world, while the national honor has been maintained. Corruption has been exposed, offenders punished, responsibility enforced, safeguards established, and now, as heretofore, the Republican party stands pledged to correct all abuses and carry out all reforms necessary to maintain the purity and efficiency of the public service. To continue and firmly establish its fundamental principles, we invite the co-operation of all the citizens of the United States.

THE UNNATURAL COALITION.

The few so-called Liberal Republicans who are flirting with the Democracy for the sake of possible nominations, had better take warning by the fate of Colonel McClure. Philadelphia being a thoroughly Republican city, was considered a proper place for trying the first experiment, and the result has not thereby been greatly encouraging to [illegible] "Republicans." [illegible] McClure is one of the ablest and most popular politicians in Philadelphia. As a speaker and debater he has not many equals. He can command a larger support on pure personal grounds than any man in Philadelphia. His experience in legislation, his familiarity with the industrial interests of the State, and his thorough knowledge of [illegible], eminently placed him for the office of State Senator, and if he had been elected to that position he would have faithfully served [illegible] interests of the people of the State.

Colonel McClure is rated as a [illegible] Republican of the Carl Schurz school. For reasons best known to himself he has never been a warm supporter of General Grant's Administration, and he is at present leading the opposition in Pennsylvania to the President's renomination. An opportunity presented itself for a trial of strength between the faction of which he is the head and the regular Republican forces. He took the field as an independent candidate for Senator in the Fourth District of Mr. Connell, the Senator elect, having died before the session of the General Assembly began. Colonel Gray, the regular Republican candidate, is not the man to go into canvass with Colonel McClure. The latter is so immeasurably the superior of the former in all qualities that impress popular assemblies, that [illegible] of the regular candidate [illegible] from a joint discussion, although [illegible] thereto by the other side. Owing, says the Bulletin to Americans, to Colonel McClure's personal relations with the editors of the leading newspapers, he had the entire press of Philadelphia on his side. The Bulletin, the Telegraph, The Inquirer and the Post warmly supported him, while The Press and the Ledger maintained a sort of quasi neutrality. The Democratic journals were all on his side, and he was further aided by a divers[illegible] in favor of "reform," which was a question of purely local politics. His competitor, while he was a man of very moderate abilities and no great popularity, had to bear the additional weight of odium that attaches to a "ring" candidate, or at least to the charge of being nominated by the "ring."

With all these powerful advantages on his side, with a weak opponent, and in a district composed in large part of intelligent and thinking people, Colonel McClure was ingloriously defeated. There appears to have been violence and fraud at two of the voting precincts, but the result could not have been affected thereby. The vote was light compared with the regular election. Mr. Connell (the deceased Senator) received 20,050 votes to 13,518 for Mr. Wartman, his Democratic competitor. Colonel Gray received 12,673 votes, and Colonel McClure 11,486, their combined vote being but a trifle more than that cast for Mr. Connell three months since. The plain inference is that the Democrats, although they made no nomination, adopting the "passive policy," flatly refused to vote for Colonel McClure. A few of that class that have no particular politics, [illegible] convictions, but go into a canvass for the sake of the fight, no doubt supported him, and very probably helped to get up some of the [illegible] complained of on election day, but the mass of the party could not be persuaded to assist in electing a Republican of such prominence as Colonel McClure. The cry of "anti-Grant," "anti-ring," "reform," and all that had no influence whatever. It may be safely concluded that no considerable body of the Democratic party will support a Republican under any circumstances, no matter whether he be rated as "liberal" or "illiberal," "ring" or anti-ring, "Grant" or anti-Grant. The editors of Democratic newspapers and the more intelligent Democratic politicians who comprehend the doctrine of expediency, may be able to make the sacrifice, but the masses are not. The "liberal" Republican who has hopes of getting into office running as an independent anti-Grant candidate, had better take warning by the fate of Colonel McClure. If he could not be elected with so many favoring influences on his side, who can be?

Quite an excitement was produced in London on Monday, by the publication in the Pall Mall Gazette, of what purported to be an abstract of the Queen's speech on the Geneva Arbitration. The report was pronounced a hoax, but was generally republished in the city papers. The authentic version of the speech was anxiously awaited in New York, Tuesday, its transmission being delayed by some trouble with the cable lines.

The Lewiston Journal appears to feel better about the Maine Central Danville connection. It says —

Superintendent Brown has been active in improving the facilities of his road since he entered upon his enlarged duties, and has remedied the great delay in transferring western produce at Danville Junction, so that hereafter produce [illegible] there on the Grand Trunk will be transferred to the Maine Central cars as rapidly as such amount of grain can be handled.

LETTER FROM AUGUSTA.

AFFAIRS AT THE STATE HOUSE.

AUGUSTA, Feb. 6, 1872.

To the Editor of the Whig and Courier:

The wheels of legislation in this "General Court" are moving along moderately; not glibly enough, I imagine, to reach an adjournment at the time fixed—the 15th instant. As the session advances members very naturally incline to speech-making. There are comparatively a large number of good debaters in the House, yet it cannot be justly charged that as yet any long speeches have been made. Wholesome legislation demands discussion, and much of the mischief done in years past is justly attributable to the tact of certain shrewd managers, in quietly engineering bills through with but little consideration.

The House by a large majority to-day, refused to reconsider its action of yesterday, in indefinitely postponing the Senate bill repealing the bounty on wolves and bears. "Old Bruin" gave a terrific growl, and the repealers went under in close "hug."

The Lewiston & Auburn Railroad bill was up and discussed this forenoon, but without taking a final vote, the House adjourned. Mr. Wilson of Thomaston has the floor to-morrow on this measure. Present appearances indicate that it will pass the House.

The Senate are yet in session (half-past 2 afternoon) discussing the Maine Central Loan bill. Its enemies have about spent their forces, in vain endeavors to load it with amendments, all of which have been voted down.

This afternoon there is to be a hearing on the Dover & Dexter project, before the Committee on Railroads.

Yesterday the same Committee visited Portland, at their own option, to examine the locality of the different roads making a western terminus in that city. It had relation to certain depot rights in dispute between the different roads.

The Senate at a quarter before three P. M. has just passed the Maine Central Loan bill, without amendment—17 yeas, 9 nays—so that this question is settled and out of the way. So much for the loud cry of "consolidation," which has seemed to haunt certain men for weeks.

The mail is closing, and with it I must close my letter.

JOHN SMITH, JR.

OUR RELATIONS WITH GREAT BRITAIN. In a dispatch from Washington, Perley of the Boston Journal says: "Those who are well acquainted with our relations with Great Britain under the Treaty of Washington have no apprehensions that any serious conflict of opinion is to arise between the contracting Powers. It was agreed that the case to be presented by each nation should be referred to arbitrators at Geneva, who were to be governed by a set of rules laid down in the Treaty, and John Bull now protests against the demands for indirect damages included in the American case thus presented. What the demands of Great Britain are is not as yet publicly known, but it should have been expected that the United States, like any other party to a bargain, would have made the largest possible demand. Payment of the indirect damages caused by the prolongation of the war, for which Great Britain is shown to have been accountable, has been demanded as well as payment of the direct damages caused by the Alabama and other rebel cruisers fitted out in British waters. But because this payment has been demanded it does not follow that a portion of it may not be accepted. It is for Great Britain to appear before the Geneva Tribunal and prove that her view of the case is correct, not to get indignant now. Should the arbitrators rule that indirect damages are not to be considered, the counsel for the United States will telegraph that ruling here, as they are not clothed with any authority to depart from the statement of the case placed in their professional charge. Our Government will then doubtless direct a modification of the claim, in accordance with the limitation of the issues on which the arbitrators are willing to decide. But thus far there is no official knowledge here that the case of the United States is not in accordance with the stipulations of the treaty; and the exhibitions of anger in the London newspapers is but a repetition of the equally vehement demonstrations with which Senator Sumner's speech, announcing the liability of Great Britain for indirect damages, was received in that country. It was that speech which 'got' the British Commissioners here to make the Treaty of Washington, and the demand for indirect damages now made, if not accepted, may secure the payment of individual claims."

LEGISLATIVE PAY. Massachusetts pays the members of her Legislature $750 each per session; Pennsylvania $1000. Maine and Vermont pay $2, Rhode Island $1, and New Hampshire $2,50 per day. New Jersey gives $3 per day for the first 40 days, and after that comes down to $1.50, which has a discouraging effect on long sessions. Delaware, West Virginia, Michigan, Indiana, New York, Kansas and Nebraska pay $3 per day; Tennessee $4; Missouri, Maryland and Iowa $5; North Carolina, Arkansas, Alabama, Virginia, South Carolina and California, $6; Georgia and Mississippi, $7; Louisiana and Texas $8, and Nevada $10. Wisconsin pays $350 a session, and in Illinois and Florida the rate is fixed at each session.

THE CONNECTICUT TRAGEDY. Later dispatches state that Irving fired one barrel of a shot gun into Miss Johnson's face, when standing within six feet of her. The mother ran forward screaming murder when Irving struck her on top of the head with such force as to knock her senseless, and break off the stock of the gun. The wound is dangerous. When a Surgeon from Norwich arrived, he found that the shot had only inflicted a slight wound on the side of Miss Johnson's head, but there was a terrible fracture on the side and top of the skull and it is supposed that Irving after stunning Mrs. Johnson, beat in the young lady's skull with the barrels of the gun. One of the barrels was undischarged. Irving then attacked the servant girl who entered the room, but she fled and gave the alarm. He afterwards committed suicide as reported. Miss Johnson died at 9 o'clock Monday evening.

It having come to my knowledge upon several occasions that there are those who are deliberately asserting the contrary, I desire to make it publicly known that I am the ONLY dentist in Bangor who has a diploma, or who is a graduate of any Dental College whatever. I should not have been thus public were it not that the fact be worthy of gratuitous denial by others there may be sufficient merit in the same for me to have it known.

O. S. HOWARD'S

Improved PISTON HEAD.

Patented Nov. 7, 1871.

Being convinced by an experience of twenty years as a builder and engineer of Steam engines, that the present method of self acting packing were deficient in many respects, and having directed my attention to the subject, I now offer to the public as the result of my experiments, a SELF SETTING PACKING RING, in a solid cored head, of great simplicity, and working freely in the cylinder, and performing its work in an efficient manner.

To it I confidently call the attention of practical engineers, as superior to any now in use, as the annexed certificates will show.

OSCAR S. HOWARD, Patentee.

Bangor, December, 1871.

BREWER, Nov. 24, 1871.

Mr. O. S. HOWARD, Bangor.

DEAR SIR:—One year ago last summer your new Piston Head Improvement was put into a steam cylinder in Palmer & Johnson's mills, running under my charge. I am pleased to say that it has given entire satisfaction, now driving the machine to do the same work with three fifths the amount of steam required with the old style of Piston Head. In my opinion your Improvement as it is now manufactured is superior to any other in use. In the manner in which the packing adjusts itself to the work of the engine and to the pressure of steam upon the Piston Head, it thereby saves a great amount of power that is lost by friction and leakage with the old style of Head.

It will be found superior to others where a light Piston is desirable, weighing not more than half as much as the average weight of others of the same size, yet made of sufficient strength for all practical purposes.

It also contains an excellent arrangement by which it can be centered, keeping the piston rod in the centre of the packing boxes, saving in a great measure, the trouble and expense of boring the cylinder and turning the rod which have to be done for a horizontal engine where there is an unequal wear of the cylinder due to the gravity of the Piston.

Yours respectfully,
GEO. E. GAY.

OFFICE OF THE
Bangor & Piscataquis Slate Company,
BROWNVILLE, Dec. 5, 1871.

Mr. O. S. HOWARD.

DEAR SIR:—We have now used your Patent Piston Head, in one of our engines for eight months. It is working admirably. We are so well pleased with it that we shall improve the first opportunity of putting it into the other engine. It adjusts itself perfectly to the cylinder at all times, is always tight and runs easily. I consider it the best thing that I have ever seen for the purpose.

Respectfully Yours,
WILLIAM SPARROW,
Agent B. & P. Slate Co.

ELLSWORTH, Nov. 26, 1871.

Mr. O. S. HOWARD,

SIR:—Your Patent Piston Head, applied to our cylinder some time since, is a great improvement over the old kind. It wastes no steam and is constantly honest in its operations, if kept in order, consequently gives us a decided increase of power. Our engineer thinks we can do as much work with fifty lbs. steam on this Head, as we did with sixty on the old.

Very respectfully,
HOPKINS, McDONALD & CO.

HAMPDEN, Dec. 6th, 1871.

Mr. O. S. HOWARD.

We have been running one of your twenty inch Piston Heads for the past two years and find it superior to any we ever used. We have been in the habit of carrying eighty to ninety lbs. steam with the old style Rings and now can do the same labor with your Head with 66lbs. steam, as it is self adjusting and works steam tight, and is much lighter than the old style of Heads which makes it less liable to wear the cylinder out of round.

Yours respectfully,
B. L. SIMPSON.
EBEN WHEELDEN, 3rd.

BANGOR, March 1, 1871.

Mr. O. S. HOWARD.

DEAR SIR:—Have been running one of your Patent Piston Heads in my mill at Passadumkeag, and in my opinion it uses steam more economically and gives a greater amount of power than any other I have ever used.

Yours Truly,
HIRAM PEAVEY, Machinist.

I coincide in the above statement.

S. R. YEATON.

LINCOLN, Dec. 11, 1871.

Mr. O. S. Howard, Bangor.

DEAR SIR:—Having an experience of 23 years with steam engines, and having used several kinds of piston heads, we take pleasure in recommending your Patent Piston Head as being much lighter, and using steam to a greater advantage than any other one we have ever used, and thereby gaining power.

Yours Respectfully,
WM. FLAISTED & SON.

BANGOR, Dec. 15, 1871.

Mr. O. S. HOWARD, Bangor, Me.

DEAR SIR:—I have been running for the past two years, in the planing mill on the Point Wharf in this city, (owned by W. T. Pearson, Esq.,) a steam engine in which was used the ordinary steam packing for the first year. The first of the present year I had your new invention of the Skeleton Head Steam and Packing put into the cylinder, and the result has been that it would drive with the same pressure of steam two planers, as easy as I could one before the change was made.

KNOWLES GORDON.

WINN, ME., Dec. 9, 1871.

Mr. O. S. HOWARD, Bangor.

DEAR SIR:—We put into our double steam engines, driving our tannery here, two of your Patent Piston Heads, and which we think have added at least eight horse power to their capacity, and have put one into another engine here, and also one into our steam saw mill at Medway, and they show the same ratio of increase of power.

We are so well pleased with them, as to have them put into our new double steam engines, which are to drive our new tannery at Medway.

G. H. MOOR,
Agent for H. Poor & Son's Tannery, Winn.
JAMES RICE, Engineer.

These Heads are now being manufactured at the HINCKLEY & EGERY IRON WORKS, and applied to Engines, both new and old, under the direction of the Patentee.

DOMESTIC NEWS.

FROM NEW YORK.

THE CUSTOM HOUSE.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6. Collector Arthur will meet with a committee composed of five members of the Chamber of Commerce, five warehouse proprietors, and five experienced customs officers this afternoon, to decide upon general order charges, and other matters in which merchants are interested.

THE ICE BLOCKADE.

Hell Gate and vicinity are completely blocked by ice so that sailing vessels cannot navigate. The dense fog this morning combined with the ice occasioned many trips between this city and the suburbs, while the Staten Island boats occupy from 2 to 3 hours each trip.

THE TAMMANY THIEVES.

It is stated that Peter B. Sweeney arrived from St. Catherines yesterday. He will be bailed by Judge Barnard under a writ of habeas corpus. The Times says that Mayor Hall was indicted by the Grand Jury, and that an indictment was also found against Nathaniel Sands, Ingersoll's [illegible], New Jersey.

THE STEAMER [illegible].

yesterday reported foundered at sea, was formerly a blockade runner, and was supposed to be for the close of the war. She belonged to Rivers & Co., and was en-route for Havana with a cargo of lumber and merchandise for Hayti.

THE HERO OF SUMTER.

The remains of General Anderson are lying at Fortress Monroe on U. S. steamship Terriere, will be sent here in a few days under escort. They will be received by General McDowell and proper arrangements will be made for the funeral honors here. It is expected that the first division of the militia will escort the remains to the depot.

WHERE HE GOT [illegible].

An Albany dispatch says that it has been discovered that one Cushman, a former clerk of the Assembly and now assistant clerk of the House of Representatives at Washington, has been in the habit of paying off his debts in old (red) three-cent postage stamps. Among other things paid for in this way was his tailor's bill. It has been the custom in past times of the Legislature to make annual allowances of postage stamps to pay for the distribution of documents by members.

THE CONGRESSIONAL [illegible].

to-day heard W. T. Perkins, a former weigher, who testified to the light [illegible] the labors of these officers, and that he had paid political assessments, not under [illegible], but a mild form of coercion.

A. E. Beatty, late a detective, testified that Col. Whitely, who is an inspector of customs, after seizing $1000 worth of diamonds smuggled, paid the duties on them and sold them to his men. Beatty himself purchasing some small lines for $35, and the witness has them now.

The case came before Commissioner Osborne, and is still undecided; but the records of the court show up the whole case. When cigars were seized by Whitely the police and reporters were all wed to [illegible] themselves some of the reporters supplying themselves twice a day. In one instance 70,000 cigars were seized, taken to Whitely's office, and never heard of afterwards. Five casks of Scotch whiskey, smuggled by the purser of the [illegible] steamer, were seized, carried to Whitely's office, subsequently disappeared, and the smuggler never was prosecuted. Whitely sends large quantities of seized cigars to the Treasury Department at Washington to Banfield and [illegible].

A short time ago Beatty was sent to the depot by Whitely and got a trunk containing diamonds on the Shoe and Leather Bank. Whitely went to that bank with Beatty—Whitely telling the cashier that Beatty had been three months working up the case, spending his own money which the government would not refund. The next day the newspapers contained a bogus story of a terrible fight in which Beatty was represented as shooting a man to get the trunk. Some time after, the bank gave Beatty $100. Beatty was two hours in getting the trunk.

Another case of seizure of smuggled cigars was settled by paying Whitely $500 and the cigars were used in Whitely's office.

Whiteley is now an inspector at the Custom House, and a secret detective.

Beatty also stated that during 18 months in Whiteley's office he seized and brought to the office probably 150,000 cigars. Taking the seizures by others into account, probably half a million cigars were brought there during that time, and at least two-thirds were used up in the office. Sometimes he had a warrant and sometimes not. He took the man before the Commissioner and got a warrant right there. He never knew of one punished, or of the Grand Jury indicting them. It has frequently happened that I arrest a man in the forenoon, and he has the case settled and goes away before 5 o'clock. The settlement is made in the District Attorney's office and the money paid.

[illegible] INDICTED.

The indictments found against Mayor [illegible] charges him with signing warrants for fraudulent bills of Garvey and Ingersoll.

NEW HAVEN, Feb. 6. The Democratic State Convention at this city to-day was largely attended, many of the leading Democrats of the State being present. A. E. Burr of Hartford, was elected Chairman. Richard D. Hubbard of Hartford, was nominated for Governor by acclamation, as were Charles Atwater of New Haven, for Lieut. Governor; Milo B. Richardson of Salisbury for Treasurer, and John W. The remainder demand amnesty and a revenue tariff; denounce centralization, the Ku-Klux law, etc., and stigmatize as a slander the assertion that Connecticut Democrats are in favor of repudiating any portion of the national debt. Sympathy is expressed for the struggling Cubans, free schools are favored with a demand that the Federal Government shall not interfere with them; the administration of ex-Governor English is endorsed and the candidates recommended.

THE GENEVA ARBITRATION.

ADVICES FROM MR. SCHENCK.

NEW YORK, Feb. 6. A Washington despatch says that advices from Minister Schenck confirm the statement that the attacks on the Washington Treaty were instigated by the Gladstone government to offset the attacks of Tories to the effect that England was over reached in the Alabama negotiations.

ANOTHER VIEW

indicated by Mr. Schenck is that the English Tory was all gotten up to prejudice the arbitrators against the American case.

RUMORS OF STOCK JOBBING.

There have been rumors in circulation in Washington that the English press have been made the vehicle of a stock jobbing operation. Secretary Boutwell says the whole thing is a job.

THE PRESIDENT'S VIEWS.

The President stated yesterday that the demand of the English government that the confederate loan be considered as a proper item conflicts with the Constitution. The suggestion which the President had heard that it would be acceptable to England to withdraw our claim of consequential damages was one which had been submitted to the Joint High Commission, when the American government indicated its willingness to accept a gross sum in lieu of such damages, but the proposition was rejected.

FORT GARRY, Feb. 6. There is great excitement in the Manitoba Legislature over the expulsion of the Ontario Government. No steps will be taken to bring Scott's murderers to justice.

The Attorney-Gen'l introduced a resolution denouncing the interference of Ontario in Manitoba affairs, and an amendment was moved declaring that either province has a right to take action regarding the murder of a fellow subject.

The galleries were crowded, and at the close of Mr. Hay's speech in favor of the amendment the spectators gave loud cheers. The galleries were closed by order of the Speaker. The amendment was lost 18 to 5. The result caused a strong exhibition of feeling.

FORTY-SECOND CONGRESS—SECOND SESSION.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 6.

SENATE.

Mr Fenton presented a memorial from a thousand merchants of New York urging appointments to public office be made on the grounds of ability and not on those of partisanship. Referred to the Judiciary.

Mr Edmunds offered a resolution asking the President to send the Senate any information in his possession relative to the alleged intention of Great Britain to revoke the Treaty of Washington unless the claims of the United States shall be presented upon the principle and in a manner agreeable to the other party.—He said it was extremely desirable to have the information. No one felt more deeply than he did the desirableness of peace between the nations; and the people of the U. S. have shown a desire for peace by submitting to arbitration claims which they felt might not be submitted to any tribunal but themselves. But the British government and the nations had had full notice that the claim for consequential damages was to be made, and if they were now about to repudiate the treaty let us say "amen," and take care to enter into no more treaties with powers so ready to break them, and at the proper time take measures to vindicate our national honor and enforce our just claims.

Mr. Trumbull thought the Senate ought not to adopt the resolution upon a mere report that Great Britain was going to repudiate a solemn treaty.

Mr. Trumbull continued, and said Parliament had not yet assembled, and if the country wanted the treaty repudiated he best way to have it done would be to insult Great Britain by this resolution.

Mr. Edmunds said this was a mere ordinary resolution of inquiry, that the matter was now alleged to be under consideration by the government of Great Britain, and it would not necessarily require the action of Parliament at all.

Mr. Cameron, chairman of the Committee on Foreign Affairs, thought that the President had no such information as this called for, and he had no idea that Great Britain intended to disgrace herself by repudiating the treaty or any part of it.

Mr. Edmunds—Mr. Trumbull's suggestion modified the resolve so as to merely ask for information as to the intention of Great Britain to repudiate the treaty, without mentioning the alleged reasons.

Mr. Robertson called up in regular order the amnesty bill, and the resolution went over. Mr. Edmunds said that he would call it up to-morrow.

Mr. Sherman from the Finance Committee, reported a bill requiring the Secretary of the Treasury to call in $3,000,000 of three per cent. certificates monthly in addition to the amount he was authorized to retire each month by the existing law.

Mr. Conkling offered a resolution which was adopted, directing the committee on retrenchment to investigate the abuses of extortion in connection with the quarantine and health regulations of New York.

Mr. Sumner presented a memorial of the householders of the District of Columbia, asking for protection against the extravagance of the territorial government, which has already incurred a debt of $13,000,000 equal to one-sixth the value of the whole District.

The amnesty bill was discussed until four o'clock when the Senate went into executive session and soon after adjourned.

HOUSE.

A bill was adopted that the Secretary of War state what military posts be abolished. Considerable time was consumed relative to incidental points as to a fresh drawing for seats.

The Educational bill came up at 1:30.

Mr. Pierce offered a proviso that the bill shall in no way affect any existing law for the disposition of public lands, nor be construed as preventing any disposition thereof which Congress may hereafter see fit to make.

Mr. Finkelnburg of Mo., intimated that he would vote against the proviso, as it seemed to make a reservation for future railroad grants.

Mr. Poland of Vermont, offered an amendment providing that the act is not to have any effect to impede any law authorizing a pre-emption of public lands, nor shall it be construed as limiting in any manner the power of Congress to alter or extend the right of homesteads.

Mr. Dunnell spoke in advocacy of the bill. He saw nothing in it recognizing the right of the National Government to interfere in education in the States.

Mr. W. R. Roberts asked Mr. Dunnell if it proposed to exclude religious denominational schools from the benefits of the bill?

Mr. Dunnell replied that denominational schools, as such, were not entitled to participation in the proposed fund any more than they were under the law setting aside certain township sections of the public lands for school purposes.

During the discussion, Mr. Butler of Tenn., declared that the Democratic party had stolen three millions of the Tennessee school fund and the Republican party only $800,000.

Mr. Garrett asked when did Mr. Butler reply, when he (Garrett) was a member of the Legislature and expelled.

Mr. Garrett said that the latter statement was wilfully false and was called to order.

Mr. Blair of Mich., and Coburn of Ind., spoke in support of the bill, while Mr. Harris of Virginia and Storms of Pennsylvania spoke against it. Harris saying that Virginia never would submit to social equality between whites and blacks, while Storms denounced the bill as a humbug, because under it the distribution for school purposes would hardly amount to a cent and a half per head for every man, woman and child in the United States.

Mr. Storms also charged that the boasted education of Massachusetts had resulted in producing infidelity in religion and degeneracy in the race, two of the greatest evils which had afflicted Massachusetts, and had almost driven out the old-fashioned ideas of Puritanism. He read statistics upon the physical degeneracy in Massachusetts, showing that the birth rate in Massachusetts was constantly diminishing, and that although the native population exceeded the foreign population four to one the birth rate among the latter were greater than among the former. The number of deaths among the native population exceeded the number of births.

Mr. Kelley of Penn., eulogized the educational system of his own State and said that while Virginia was making it a felony to teach a colored child to read, Pennsylvania had provided a college and education for the colored people, both at Pittsburg and Philadelphia. The gentleman from Virginia, (Harris) might not exhibit such extreme terror about mixed schools. The difficulty would only be temporary, for the sun and air of the Southern States were known to bleach the blackest African, both in hair and complexion to the color of pure Saxon. (Laughter.)

Mr. Hereford—Is the gentleman in favor of forcing mixed schools on the people?

Mr. Kelley—I say this: that nature gives the lie to the assertion that Southern men abhor close intercourse with women of African descent. He ascribed the poverty and decay of the South to the absence of education, which deterred emigrants from going there.

The debate was closed by Mr. Perce, who defended the bill and its details and expressed his conviction that the whole fund would be permitted to go where it was most needed, to the Southern States.

The first question was on Mr. McNeely's amendment, putting printer's tickets, and ink, type metal, and printing paper on the free list.

On objection by Mr. Hoar the amendment was ruled out of order as belonging to the revenue, which must first be considered in Committee of the Whole.

The vote on the bill and pending amendments went over until to-morrow, and the House adjourned.

A "LIBERAL" BANQUET—AN M. P. SUSTAINS THE AMERICAN CASE.

London, Feb. 5—Midnight. At a banquet of the Liberals held at Lamboth to-night, Peter John Locke King, M. P. for Surry, presided. Wm. McArthur, M. P. for Lambeth, made a speech in which he referred to the Alabama case, and said he seconded the claims of the United States, for indirect damages.

A HOAX.

There is no doubt that the abstract of the Queen's speech published in the Pall Mall Gazette this evening was a hoax.

THE "DILKE" MEETING.

The demonstration in Trafalgar Square to night by the supporters of Sir Chas. Dilke was attended with comparative quiet. A procession numbering 14,000, many of whom wore Phrygian caps marched to the square. Numerous red flags were borne throughout the line and the bands played the Marseillaise. Mr. Odger presided.

THE "TIMES" MODERATE.

London, 6. The London Times preserves its tone of moderation assumed yesterday in treating the subject of American Claims. It deprecates the intemperate denunciation of the treaty, and hopes it will lead to no hasty action or resolves. The present duty of English statesmen is to say, or do nothing likely to prejudice any attempt to remove the misunderstanding which unhappily has arisen.

A BELATED JOURNAL.

The Daily Telegraph pronounces the claims for indirect damages as utterly indefensible, inadmissible and baseless. It regrets any hesitation on the part of the London press to stigmatize those demands as they deserve. The intentions of England cannot be too strongly impressed on the people of the United States. The Telegraph feels convinced that the American Government will withdraw its extraordinary demands.

OPENING OF PARLIAMENT—THE QUEEN'S SPEECH.

The session of Parliament was opened shortly after noon to day. When the members of the House of Commons had assembled in the Chamber of Peers the Queen's speech was delivered as follows:—

My Lords and Gentlemen:—I avail myself of the opportunity afforded by your reassembling for the discharge of your momentous duties to renew the expression of my thankfulness to the Almighty for the deliverance of my son from the most imminent danger, and lively recollection of the profound universal sympathy shown by my loyal people during that period of anxiety and trial.

PUBLIC THANKSGIVING.

I propose that on Tuesday the 27th inst., conformable to the good and becoming usages of former days, that the blessing then received shall be acknowledged on behalf of the nation, by thanksgiving in the Metropolitan Cathedral. At this celebration it is my desire and hope to be present. Direction has been given to provide the necessary accommodations for the members of Parliament.

FOREIGN RELATIONS.

The assurances of friendship that I receive from foreign powers continue in all respects satisfactory, and I need hardly assure you that my endeavors will, at all times, be directed towards the maintainance of these friendly relations.

THE SLAVE TRADE

and practices scarcely to be distinguished from slave trading, are still pursued in more than one quarter of the world, and continue to attract the attention of my government. In the South Sea Islands the name of the British Empire is even now dishonored by the connection of some of my subjects with these nefarious practices, and in one of them the murder of an exemplary Prelate has cast fresh light upon some of the baneful consequences. A bill will be presented to you for facilitating the trial of offences of this class in Australia, and endeavors will be made to increase in other forms the means for the counteraction of this evil.

THE FRENCH TREATY.

Various communications have passed between my government and that of France on the subject of the commercial treaty concluded in 1860 from the divergence in the views respectively entertained in relation to the value of protection laws. This correspondence has not brought about any agreement to modify that important convention. Both sides, however, have uniformly declared their earnest desire that nothing shall occur to impair the cordial tie which has so long prevailed between the nations. The papers relating to these subjects will be laid before you.

THE ALABAMA CLAIMS.

The Arbitrators appointed pursuant to the Treaty of Washington for the purpose of amicably settling the Alabama claims held their first meeting at Geneva. Cases were laid before the Arbitrators on behalf of each party to the Treaty.

A MILD DISSENT.

In the case so submitted by the United States large claims are included which are understood on my part not to be within the province of the Arbitrators. On this subject I have caused a friendly communication to be made to the government of the United States.

THE OTHER PROVISIONS.

The Emperor of Germany has undertaken to arbitrate on the San Juan water boundary and the cases of the two governments have been presented to his Imperial Majesty. The Commission to sit at Washington has been appointed and is in session. The provisions of the Treaty which require the consent of the Parliament of the Dominion of Canada awaits its assembling.

DOMESTIC AFFAIRS.

Turning to domestic affairs I am glad to appraise you that with a few exceptions, Ireland has been free from serious crime; trade in that part of the kingdom has been active and the advance in agricultural industry remarkable. I am also able to congratulate you, so far as present experience allows judgement to be passed upon the preceptible diminution in the number of both graver crimes and habitual criminals in Great Britain.

REVENUE, ETC.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons:—The principal estimates for the coming year have been prepared, and they will at once be laid before you. I trust that you will find them suitable to the circumstances of the country. The state of the revenue affords favorable indications of the demand for employment and of the general condition of the people; indications which are corroborated by a decline of pauperism not inconsiderable.

REFORM MEASURES.

My Lords and Gentlemen:—Your attention is invited to several measures of acknowledged national interest. Among these are bills for the improvement of public education in Scotland; for the regulation of the mines; for the amendment of the licensing system, and for fixing the relations of the Superior Courts of Justice and Appeal in particular cases. A bill having for its main object the establishment of secret voting, together with a measure relating to the corrupt practices at Parliamentary elections, will be immediately presented. Several measures of administrative improvement in Ireland will be laid before you. Likewise legislative provisions founded on the report of the Sanitary Commission.

CONCLUSION.

You, my Lords and Gentlemen, will, I am confident, again apply your well-known assiduity to that work of legislation which, from the increasing exigencies of modern society, still seems to grow upon your hands, and I shall continue to rely, under Providence, alike on the loyalty of my people and your energy and wisdom, to sustain the constant efforts of the [illegible] duty to uphold the rights and [illegible] the honor of the empire.

THE BUOY GONE FROM STONO BAR, SC

The coasting captains have called our attention several times of late to an embarrassment under which under which they are suffering, caused by the absence from its moorings of the outer buoy on the Stono Bar, which has been adrift since September 25 last. They are very anxious that this matter should receive the attention of the Lighthouse Board, if it be their province to attend to it.—Charleston Courier.

SUNDAY MARRIAGES. Mr. Editor:—Not long ago my better half saw an item in your valuable paper suggesting a doubt about the legality of Sunday marriage, and, as that important ceremony with us was performed on the Lord's Day, she has been very anxious to know if we had not better have the knot retied on some other day; and I may as well say here that my wife is for legal rights and women's rights. So to satisfy ourselves (for I confess I felt a little cheap myself, lest I might have been a little too fast,) we called on a lawyer and notary public for his opinion. After learning that we had the usual courting spell and engagement before the wedding, he told us that the contract was good and binding after our engagement and before marriage, so that if either of us had broken it and married another, an action for breach of our promise could be maintained; that the ceremony of the wedding, though performed on the Lord's day, was but the public acknowledgment of our contract; and he further told us that one court had decided that "when a contract is fully executed on the Sabbath, and the property passes, the contract is valid." So there could be no doubt of the legality of our marriage. My wife felt relieved, I assure you. I paid two dollars willingly for the blessed information, and have had peace and comfort at home ever since.

MR. FELLOWS is daily in receipt of letters of inquiry, from various parts, respecting his Syrup of Hypophosphites. One recently received, leads to the belief that the public mistake his meaning in reference to its effect in imparting superior energy to the mind. Where the intellect has been impaired by kindred causes, the use of the Syrup, together with proper precautions in the use of food, clothing, exercise and rest, will restore full power to the brain and nerves. Superiority of genius consists in great capacity of brain for assimilating material from every quarter, and of developing in proportion, but as by far the greater number are not well endowed by nature, consequently lacking this capacity it would be quite impossible to find cranium space for material necessary to constitute the brilliant genius. Hence, although the Syrup will assist in restoring the mind which is lost, it cannot change a natural born idiot into an intelligent man.

Not among the least of the invaluable properties of MISS SAWYER'S SALVE are its beneficial effects on the hair. Rubbed on the scalp in five or six different parts it promotes the growth of the hair, prevents its turning gray, and, on bald spots, it produces a new growth of hair. No lady should be without this invaluable article as an indispensable cosmetic for the toilet. It eradicates dandruff and disease from the head, and blotches and pimples from the face. d&w.

LYNDE HOTEL. Travellers have every reason to feel grateful to the proprietor of Lynde Hotel, for he has furnished them a comfortable home, which was exactly what was needed in that locality.

"Good morning, John, where are you going?"

"To CHASE'S Clothing Store, of course, where everybody who wants to buy Clothing cheap should go."

Are you in want of a suit of Clothes? If so, go to Chase's and get a suit; and if you get them there, they will be made good and durable, and when he sells a person a suit of Clothes he sells them in so satisfactory a manner that when they want another suit this is the store where they will buy them. Do you want your clothes made up in better style than can be obtained elsewhere? If so, remember that Chase's Store, keeps the nobbiest styles of goods, and they are made up better than any of his competitors can make them. Bear this fact in mind, and tell it to your father, mother, son, cousin, second cousin, and to all your uncles in the country, for although facts are stubborn things to get over, nevertheless the good news should be spread. It is a lamentable fact that virtue gobbles up its own reward. You can save forty per cent and get a first-class garment, for a small amount of money. He only asks you to satisfy yourselves before you buy. Go and see the goods and learn the prices; then price the same class of goods in the city or out of it, and satisfy yourselves that it is as he says. Any garments bought at this store can be returned, and the money will be refunded if not perfectly satisfactory, and are not soiled. He keeps a line of nice and durable goods well adapted to farmers' wants, and calls their especial attention to his stock. He proposes to deal fairly and honestly with all men, and thereby hope to merit a good share of the patronage of the city and country. Also, he has custom made garments of every description. Don't fail to go there. The people are fast finding out that the great sales of Clothing at Chase's Clothing House is no humbug; he does all he advertises to do. Clothing of superior quality, with every new style of goods for merchants, farmers, mechanics, and all classes and ages of boys and men, is now to be found at A. F. Chase's new store, which is noted for low prices and upright dealing. Prof. CHASE is ever at the board where he always gives his customers good fits. Remember the place. NOT ONE FAILED IN 20,000.

The New Year finds the LIGHTNING SAWS universally acknowledged to lead the American market. No manufacturer of saws has dared to question or publicly test, at the American Institute or elsewhere the matter of superiority of the latest improved Saws. The $500 challenge, for expenses of public contest is engraved on each saw.

All teeth are cutters, and simple as old V. All Saws warranted to Cut and Touch uninjured.

The large increase of the business has compelled lease of No. 89 Beekman-st., and arrangements for the manufacture of five thousand LIGHTNING cross-cuts per month, and hope to be able to fill all orders promptly.

The supply has been unequal to the demand for the LIGHTNING BUCK SAW, but hereafter I will endeavor to keep a stock on hand. The sale of several thousand dozen of the above-mentioned saws causes belief that they are the best blades in the market. All Lightning Saws are indelibly etched with my name, the Cross-Cuts with directions for filing, using, &c.

Each Lightning Saw will cut and touch ends uninjured. Not one in twenty thousand has proved imperfect, so thorough is the inspection of these regular goods; but, for the benefit of such unskilled men as cannot set and use a thin Saw a gauge heavier (than regular 15) will be inserted to order. Since enlargement of dust space, one year ago, no complaint of clogging has been received. The Lightning Saws are equally adapted for large and small timber, soft or hard wood, but soft timber requires saws to be set wider. Lightning Saws are all set and sharpened ready for use when sent out, are two gauges thinner on back.

"THE GREATER INCLUDES THE LESS."

Note extra steel and durability as contrasted with old V cut lined on M tooth. After wearing teeth out they may be recut, or sold to some admirer of the old V friction process, used by all other Saws.

This Saw differs from all the well-known clearing-teeth Saws in use. The Lightning teeth are all beveled blades for cutting, while clearing-teeth used by all other patent Saws are dust-removers merely, requiring to be shortened, and are left full thickness of saw-plate, as they do no cutting. The Lightning Saw is designed to cut timber by direct action both ways. If one point of M tooth was set one way and one the other—the slant would ride and lift out the tooth. Most of the large Hardware Jobbing Houses in America now handle my goods. BEWARE of worthless infringements, for which I am seeking legal redress under Patents, Trade Mark, and Copyright.

NEW-YORK, AM. INSTITUTE FAIR BUILDING, Nov. 4, 1871.

E. M. BOYNTON, 78 Beekman-st., New-York—SIR: This certifies that I saw the Lightning Cross-Cut Saw, worked by hand, by two men, Nov. 2, at this Fair. Said men and saw cut off a sound 8x9 inch chestnut log in 34 seconds; and 11 cuts of same, continuously, in two minutes and 18 seconds; or at a rate of a cord of wood in less than nine minutes. I am satisfied that for all purposes of cross-cutting large and small timber, your cross-cuts and wood saws have no rival in speed, in ease, and in simplicity.

I believe their universal use would save a vast amount of money and time, and lengthen the lives of millions of men. J. W. BLAKE,
Superintendent and Engineer American Institute Fair.

N. B. These extreme tests are quoted merely to prove what should be obvious—that direct cutting is better than the old V friction process used by all other saws.

Honest hardware men will procure the genuine for their customers, even if they are overstocked with inferior goods, and where they do not keep them, Agents are wanted. A six-foot Cross-Cut and Buck Saw sent on receipt of $6. Express will cost from 40 cents to $1 to places this side of the Mississippi River by special contract.

N. B. Millions of Axes are used for cutting wood; a Lightning Cross-Cut Saw, either for one man or for two, will cut five times as fast as an axe. Why not try them? Also, Lightning Ice Saws, 4 to 6 feet long, suitable for general use.

See that the name and warrant are on each saw.

TO-MORROW.

BY MRS. MARY B. DODGE.

To-morrow a beautiful day,
Is waiting for you and for me;
Bright skies of a soft shining ray
Are impatient the shadows to flee.
Why care if the landscape be sullen and gray?
To-morrow will chase all the cloud-racks away.

To-morrow, you say, may be dull,
With the leaden hued face of to-day,
With its morrow with measure as full
Of a joy never spoiled by delay.
If to-day born of yesterday baffle our will,
The morrow, to-morrow, is radiant still.

To-morrow is mantled in white
As pure as the soft-falling snow,
That rounds into waves of delight,
To sever Earth's pitiful woe.
The gale may be sighing, the frost-king astray,
To-morrow will sparkle in crystalline spray.

To-morrow with roses is crowned,
A tender eyed sylph of the May,
Flinging garlands of blossoms around
In a child-like improvident way.
To-day may be barren, a chill in the air;
To-morrow young spring life will bud everywhere.

To-morrow the birds without fear,
Flitting back to the woodlands again,
Will sing for a summer that's here,
A full-throated, ravishing strain.
The world now so silent of birds or of bee
To-morrow will echo with refluent glee.

To-morrow the babe of the field
From its silk-curtained cradle shall rise,
And spurning the harvest-queen's shield,
Fill the air with a golden surprise.
To-seed may be grown in the cell of to-day,
Next to to-morrow in royal array.

To-morrow is regal for all,
With a sceptre of love in her hand;
The weary but wait for her call,
To spring to the full-fruited land.
Over the space of to-day we may tearfully grope,
But the dawn of to-morrow is glowing with hope.

Yes, to-morrow a beautiful day,
Is waiting for you and for me;
Ah, a rest for grief to allay,
A sorrow weighted pinions to free.
Why seek we the burden that present to-day?
To-morrow, to-morrow, will lift it away.

From Old and New.

BUILDING A HOUSE WITH A TEA-CUP.

BY MRS. S. C. HALL.

Concluded.

"I had managed sufficient fuel to boil the kettle, and reached some degree of warmth, and I waited patiently and prayerfully for the waking. It came at last. The anger and the violence that had been almost insanity were all gone; only the poor broken down man was there. He asked what o'clock it was. I told him the church clock had gone half past one. He then asked for water. I brought him a cupful, another, and another, and then a cup of tea. After he had taken it, he gathered himself up and took the stool I moved toward him. I poured him out a fresh cup of tea. He looked for some little time vacantly at the table, and not seeing another cup, he pushed that one toward me. I drank, half filled it again, and moved it to his hand.

"'My poor Katie,' he said, and I kept repeating my name, 'is there but this—only one cup between us?'

"'And enough, too!' I answered, smiling as gayly as I could. 'Enough to build a house and home on, if we trusted to tea.'

"'What is your meaning?' he inquired.

"I was almost afraid to say what I meant, but I took courage, while trembling. 'I mean, darling,' I answered, 'that if we could both be content with refreshment of tea, we'd soon have a better and brighter house than ever we had.'

"'I've been a bad father and a bad husband' he said—for by this time he had nearly come to himself—'but all is gone, and it's too late to mend.'

"I made no answer but just drew down the blanket from the faces of the sleeping children—there was never anything touched my husband like the little child.

"'Is all gone?' I asked, and with that he crushed his face down on his clasped hands as they lay on the table, and burst into tears. I knelt down beside him and thanked God for the tears in my heart, but I was so choked I could not speak; and we staid that way ever so long, neither saying a word. Now it is strange what takes the mind; and taken Even while his face was wet with tears, my darling lifted it.

"'Katie,' he said—and it may seem to you nothing but a fond old woman's fancy, but I've always thought there was no music in the world ever so sweet as the way he said 'Katie' unto this day. 'Katie,' he says, 'let's turn the cup, and see what it reads.' I like all youngsters, I believe, we had tossed many a cup, in our boy and girl days, just for laughter. He took it up quite serious like, and turned it, and as he looked into it he smiled. 'There's a clear road,' he went on, 'and a house at the top, and a wonderful lot of planks; they can't be ours, for there is not a plank in or near the pit now.'

"'But there will be,' I answered, eagerly. 'It was only yesterday, down where the spinny overhangs the pool, I met Mrs. Groveley.—She gave me a blithe good morning, and asked if my good man was going to turn his leaf soon. 'Tell him to make haste from me,' she said, laughing like a sunbeam; 'for he's too good a fellow to go on much longer as he's been going. There's good ... him.'

"'Are you sure she said that?' whispered my husband.

"So I told him ... she said she ... to turn like a man ... lot of timber ... on the corner ... continued ... trees. As ... the spring ... something ... house ... and ... side.'

"'You ... he answered ... bad father ... in the place ... day's work; and ... but he got it out ... a turnip's not like ...

"And then I ... laid bare my heart ... been what ... the house ... I ought to have ... the morning ... ness, we ... sinners at ... again, for ... find by the ... home; and ... called to my ... us both. I ... ised my husband ... try me— ... make for him ... joke, and ... cup. 'A ... one tea-cup ...

"'Yes,' I ... grow stronger than ... flows into the ... that cup, ...

"We both ... and the bests of that ... husband's ... many face gray and haggard ... trembling ... to his lips ... brought ...

"Lucky ... een years ... keep our promise to God ... each other, and somehow ... hearts.

"'We can ... through Christ, who strengtheneth.'

"My poor ... first. Never was ... not cast about ... self. As the day ... face the street ... Manor, and ... hand would ... wasted, because he no longer trusted in his own strength, that he was a pledged teetotaler, and I was pledged to make his home happy; but that we did not trust in our own pledges, but in Christ that we could do all things through Christ who strengthened us.

"Still the ... against the ... and the sneers of his boon companions ... had to struggle hard to give a desolate ... the welcome home look that was ... for the lights and the warmth and the excitement, and the praise ... were sure to obtain. But, however scanty the furniture, a poor man's house can always be sweet and clean; that is in the power of the poorest; and though when he returned from his first day's timbering there was but one tea-cup between us, the old darned cloth was clean, the teapot and fire bright. No lord's children could be cleaner, and he said it was as good as a nosegay to kiss their sweet cheeks. It was hideous to see how his old companions loomed in upon our poverty, and tempted, or tried to tempt him back. One terrible drunkard staggered in, and mockingly asked if I would leave my husband go for an hour—just half an hour even—and I rose and went into the little bedroom. I knew I could trust him, because he had ceased to trust himself. And I blessed God when I saw the tempter staggering forth, deriding my husband, and prepared to commit violence on any who oppose his progress.

"It is some time before neighbors or old friends can believe in a drunkard's reformation. The dear good lady who took the surest way to insure his, lived to see our growing prosperity—'building a house with a tea-cup,' she always called it—and my good man was not slow to declare the effect the clear high-road pictured forth in the tea grounds had upon his excited imagination on that memorable night. Our necessaries returned to us slowly—very slowly at first—but the neighbors, when they saw how humbly and earnestly my husband worked, offered us credit for what they thought we needed; but we resolved to abstain from all luxuries until we could pay for what we got. Some of our little valuables had been left at the public houses as security for scores, and the landlord thought himself a most injured man when my husband redeemed his one article of finery—a gold shirt-pin that had belonged to his father. We learned the happiness every Saturday night of adding to our comforts; and from that day to this my husband has always found his house swept and garnished—no damp linen hanging about, no buttonless shirts or holy stockings. The children were trained to neatness and good order, and the sound of discord and contradiction has never been since heard within our home. The habits of our first months of marriage returned; a few verses of Holy Writ, a prayer, and a hymn refreshed the memory of our bond with God and with each other. We feel those exercises far more impressive now than we did when we practiced them as a cold ceremony rather than as the result of a living faith.

"In less than six years my husband built this cottage, I may say with his own hands.—We got this bit of land at a low rate, and over hours he worked at it as only a teetotaller can work. Our Willy has never been a strong lad, and the doctor says if he had been even a trifle wild he would have been long ago in the church-yard. With all my love from his beautiful infancy, I did not do my duty the first two years of his life. A careless wife is never a careful mother, whatever she may think; but it pleased the Lord to let in his light upon us before the night came. And it was not folly to carry two things first into this house—our Bible and the old tea-cup that attracted your curiosity. It was not too much to say that the cup often reminded us of our duties. And you can understand how, I think, darling, why Goodman and Granny Gray value it before all the gay china that could come from beyond the seas; for I may rightly say that by God's help and blessing, this house was built out of that tea cup."—Harper's Monthly.

INVESTING MONEY

The 7 3-10

GOLD LOAN!

A Choice Investment Security!

We offer for sale at par and accrued interest, the

First Mortgage

Land Grant Gold Bonds

OF THE

Northern Pacific

RAILROAD COMPANY.

These Bonds are payable in 1900—bear 7 3-10 per cent. interest in GOLD, payable first of July and January, are FREE OF U. S. TAX—are receivable at 10 PER CENT PREMIUM for the Company's lands at the LOWEST CASH PRICE, and are issued in the following denominations: Coupon bonds, $100, $500 and $1,000; Registered bonds, $100, $500, and 1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

The Company is allowed "to negotiate and procure a loan which shall not exceed Fifty Thousand Dollars per mile," which is secured by a FIRST and ONLY MORTGAGE, "UPON THE RAILROAD, FRANCHISES, AND ALL THE LANDS AND PROPERTY, AND RIGHTS OF PROPERTY, REAL AND PERSONAL, NOW IN POSSESSION OF THE NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD COMPANY, OR WHICH THE SAID COMPANY MAY HEREAFTER ACQUIRE," and THE TRUSTEES OF THE BONDS ARE OBLIGED TO HOLD 25,000 ACRES OF AVERAGE LAND AS SECURITY FOR EVERY $50,000 OF BONDS ISSUED.

The sales of all lands, "AT SUCH PRICES AS APPROVED BY THE SAID TRUSTEES," are set apart to redeem the Bonds, for by the definite terms of the mortgage, "THE PROCEEDS OF ALL SALES OF LANDS, WHETHER IN CASH, BONDS, COUPONS OR OTHER SECURITIES, SHALL BE DEPOSITED WITH THE TRUSTEES;" also, "ALL MONEYS IN THE HANDS OF THE TRUSTEES FOR LANDS SOLD, SHALL BE INVESTED BY THEM IN THE FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS OF THE COMPANY SECURED BY THIS MORTGAGE, WHEN SAID BONDS CAN BE PURCHASED AT A SUM NOT EXCEEDING 110 CENTS ON THE DOLLAR AND ACCRUED INTEREST."

Although the Northern Pacific Railroad Company intend to sell the same quality of lands at prices BELOW OTHER GRANTS, to induce rapid settlement, still the practical working of the above provisions is apparent, for the sales of land up to November 1st exceeded 200,000 acres, at an average price upwards of $5 per acre, EQUAL TO 1,200,000, OR MORE THAN 10 PER CENT. ON $11,300,000, WHICH WAS THE TOTAL AMOUNT OF BONDS SOLD TO THAT DATE; still this 200,000 acres of land is NOT QUITE ONE-SIXTEENTH PART OF THE LAND GRANT IN MINNESOTA ALONE.

Below we give the average price per acre of the sales of the Land Grants on different roads, that some idea may be formed of the immense value of the 50,000,000 acres granted to the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, for there can be no doubt that the average price per acre of its land sales will be much above the general average price these roads:

	Average per Acre.
Grand Rapids and Indiana	$13.94
Burlington and Missouri River	11.76
do do in Nebraska	8.75
Illinois Central—to 1869	11.05
do do for 1870	12.55
Hannibal and St Joseph	11.00
Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe	7.70
Flint and Marquette	7.18
Southern Minnesota	7.04
Atlantic and Pacific	6.77
Iowa Falls and Sioux City	6.60
St. Paul and Pacific	6.50
Cedar Rapids and Missouri River	6.00
St. Paul and Sioux City	5.67
Mo. River, Fort Scott and Gulf	5.75
Jackson, Lansing and Saginaw	5.00
Marquette and Ontonagon	5.00
Denver Pacific	4.18
Union Pacific	4.25
Kansas Pacific	3.87

The CHARACTER of the Land Grant of the Northern Pacific Railroad Company, as a whole, is readily acknowledged by all persons acquainted with the different Grants, to be SUPERIOR TO THAT OF ANY OTHER ROAD; but even if the average price per acre of its land sales should not be above the lowest average of all the land grants, which is but $3.07 on the Kansas Pacific Road, still at this low figure for the 25,300 acres held to redeem each $50,000 of bonds, there would be a surplus of $26,750 over the amount of bonds that can be issued on each mile of the Northern Pacific Railroad.

During the month of December the Northern Pacific Railroad was opened for passengers and freight to the Red River of the North, the eastern boundary of Dakota Territory—this, with the completed road on the Pacific slope, and the St. Paul and Pacific branches of 238 miles, make nearly 600 miles of road in operation on the close of 1871.

As the U. S. Government is now calling in the Five-Twenties, holders of these can convert them into Northern Pacific Bonds, and thereby INCREASE THEIR INCOME MORE THAN 33 1-3 PER CENT. At the present time a good proportion of the sales of N. P. Bonds are by the conversion of Five-Twenties, and we notice that the Boston Journal in its monetary article of Nov. 11th, says: "Holders of Five-Twenties of 1862) are either realizing upon them, or exchanging them into other issues—often into railroad bonds—the Northern Pacific Seven-Thirties are favorites for reinvestment."

The Chicago Disaster fully demonstrated that a First Mortgage Bond on any Trunk Line of railroad is the safest and least fluctuating security known. This is manifest in one quite marked instance, as seen in the fluctuation of the First Mortgage Bonds of the Michigan Central Railroad, which fell but one per cent. in the late financial panic, while U. S. Five-Twenties and Sixes of 1881 fluctuated two to three per cent.; and here the Michigan Central Railroad had met with the greatest loss it could by fire—the burning of its large terminal depot. The New York Daily Bulletin, which gives the authentic reports of the Stock Exchange, in its issue of the 11th of October, after the Chicago fire, says: "Railroad Bonds have stood the shock better than any other class of securities," and again, October 18th, says: "Railroad Bonds are steadier than any other class of securities."

☞ To persons seeking permanent investments, also holders of Government Bonds wishing to increase their income, WE WOULD RECOMMEND THE NORTHERN PACIFIC SEVEN-THIRTY GOLD BONDS AS ONE OF THE BEST AND SAFEST SECURITIES NOW OFFERED TO THE PUBLIC.

We recommend this bond for the reason that it is GROUNDED UPON A LANDED REAL ESTATE BASIS, WORTH DOUBLE THE AMOUNT OF BONDS ISSUED PER MILE, AND ALSO UPON A FULLY EQUIPPED TRUNK LINE OF RAILROAD RUNNING THROUGH THE SAME.

For further particulars concerning this Bond, or purchase of the same, apply to the undersigned.

New Testimonials.

Testimonial from Deacon Theodore B. Perkins, formerly of the well known house of Nason, Hamlin & Co., Augusta, Me., after using one 35 cent bottle of Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam.

GLOUCESTER, Mass., Dec. 21, 1871.
F. W. KINSMAN, Esq.—My Dear Sir: Excessive business can alone prevent my sooner acknowledging the receipt of your very valuable favor, and I am now glad to say that your Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam is the most efficacious preparation for coughs and colds that I have ever had in my family. At the time it was received, I was suffering badly with Asthma, attended with a dry, hard Cough, both of which left me immediately after taking the mixture. The latter has not returned. It has been several weeks.

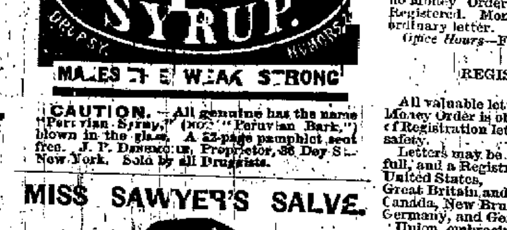

We, the undersigned, having enjoyed for many years an intimate personal acquaintance with Deacon Theodore B. Perkins, would certify that his case of Asthma was as bad as any this has ever come under our notice, and that to our knowledge, on account of this illness he went to California, where he remained about one year undergoing treatment for the disease.

BOOTHBAY, Dec. 30, 1871.
Mr. F. W. KINSMAN—Dear Sir: For the last 5 years I have been troubled with a cough; I have spent one winter in Florida, taken about everything in the shape of patent medicines and doctors' prescriptions, and I can say that your Adamson's Botanic Balsam is the best thing I have found for a cough. I have been using it some three months, and am about well.
Yours truly, S. B. YOUNG,
Formerly of Augusta.

AUGUSTA, Jan. 2, 1872.
Mr. KINSMAN:—I have been troubled with Asthma, attended with a Cough, ever since I was six years of age; have tried various remedies. Commenced using Adamson's Botanic Cough Balsam some time in January, 1871, and it seemed to act like magic, curing me at once. I have had but little cough since, and I think that it is the best remedy to be found for Asthma. I have since recommended it to quite a number, and it has given good satisfaction.

MISS SAWYER'S SALVE.

HERE you have a salve combining soothing and healing properties with no dangerous ingredient. A remedy at hand for the many pains and aches, wounds and bruises to which flesh is heir. Is more easily applied than many other remedies, never producing a bad effect, but always relieving pain, however severe.

It is prepared by Miss Sawyer, who has used it in her own extensive treatment of the sick, for nearly twenty years, with great success.

The principal diseases for which this salve is recommended are, Chilblains, Rheumatism, Piles, Scrofula, Old Ulcers, Salt Rheum, Sprains, Burns, Fever Sores, Felons, Pimples, Erysipelas, Sore Eyes, Barber's Itch, Deafness, Boils, Ringworms, Corns, Bites of Insects, Cancers, Toothache, Earache, Sore Nipples, Baldness, Swollen Breasts, Itch, Scald Head, Teething, Chapped Hands, Scalds, Cuts, Bruises, Croup, Cracked Lips, and Sores on Children.

It never fails to cure Rheumatism if properly applied. Rub it on well with the hand three times a day. In several cases it has cured palsied limbs. For Piles it has been discovered to be a sure remedy. Persons that have been afflicted for years have been relieved by a few applications. For Erysipelas it works wonders, allaying the inflammation and quieting the patient. For Chapped Hands it produces a cure immediately. Let those with Salt Rheum obtain this Salve, and apply it freely, and they will find it invaluable. It is good in cases of Scrofula and Tumors. Cancers have been cured with it. The best Salve ever invented for Swollen Breast and Sore Nipples. No way injurious, but sure to afford relief. Sore or Weak Eyes—Rub it on the lids gently, once or twice a day. Cures deafness by putting in the ears on a piece of cotton. For Felons, this is superior to anything known. For Pimples this acts like a charm. For Burns and Scalds, apply the Salve at once and it gives immediate relief. For Old Sores, apply once a day.

FOR HORSES AND CATTLE.—For Sores or Bruises on Horses or Cattle this Salve is invaluable, and has astonishing effect in curing scratches on horses. This Salve has worked its own way into notoriety, and is a safe and sure remedy for all the above ailments.

We, the undersigned, have been acquainted with Miss Sawyer for many years, and believe her to be a Christian lady and a skillful nurse, and having used her salve in our families, it gives us great pleasure in saying it is the best general medicine we have ever used:
